alma mater

*When through thy valley, Zelienople, twilight falls,
Bringing its silence to our high school halls,
In that happy moment, love for Alma Mater swells,
And the heart, outpouring, of her glory tells.*

Far from thy valley, yearly rove thy loving sons,

Yet in their dreaming, e'er thy name returns,

Tis the same fond spirit, which the memory lingers o'er,

And the lips but echo that old song of yore.

Zelienople High School, fairest Alma Mater, Zelienople High School, may we honor her.

dedication

- Although we have known Mr. Rodemoyer only two years, his magnetic personality and his friendly attitude to everyone has gained for him the reputation of being a great guy and a good fellow.
- In recognition of his whole-hearted interest and sympathetic understanding, we sincerely dedicate to him this issue of the Zelig-Ann.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

CAPTAIN GEORGE W. GAGE

The school, in outward appearance, is a building where students come and go. In reality, however, the school is more than just a mass of bricks and mortar. Zelienople High School is a living machine—a human machine, the very heart of which is the school board. Without it, the school could continue no better than can the human body without a heart.

We of Zelienople High School are able to have an education of which we can be proud. To these men, who, every month, iron out our difficulties and keep the school a living, human institution, we of the graduating class express our sincere thanks.

Captain Gage

When duty calls, the patriotic citizen answers. Captain Gage has been serving his country for the past two years as instructor at the University of New Hampshire. Good luck, Captain!

Acting Supervising Principal

In grateful appreciation, "Pop," of your years of constructive service and of your beneficial influence on all of us who have come in contact with you, we take this opportunity to wish you continued success.

RONALD CLOUSE

MISS ESTHER LUNTZ

Secretary to Principal

To Miss Luntz, whose unfailing performance of duty has made her an admirable model of efficiency to everyone, we extend our thanks and gratitude.

YOCKEY, GEORGE

PRESIDENT

April 14

He does what we ask with so much vim,
We wish the rest were all like him.

MEEDER, CARL

VICE-PRESIDENT

January 17

With the girls he's very handy;
To everyone Carl's simply dandy.

LINTZ, JAMES

SECRETARY

May 12

He's lots of fun, and not too shy,
How girls' hearts flutter when he walks by.

LOGSDON, GEORGE

TREASURER

February 22

Wisdom Charley—one of the best,
He rates A + in every test.

ALLEN, CLARK

November 26

They should have named him Fred;
His humor is as corny as this rhyme.

BAUDER, CHRISTINE

October 2

Shy, quiet, calm, and true
Ask Chris, she'll do it for you.

BINTRIM, DOROTHY

April 22

Lush lines and trim figure—
Boy, does she intriguer!

BRAUGHLER, JANE

April 14

This devotee of Helen Hayes
Follows all the latest plays.

BROPHY, MARION

March 21

Sharp tongue, sharp wit,
Not a thing can smother it.

BURCKART, DELORIS

January 15

A wee bit shy, rather small,
Deloris is a friend to all.

BURKETT, JOHN

June 2

He's blond and stocky. What a build!
He's also said to be strong-willed.

CABLE, ROBERT

January 10

If ambitions come true for this boy,
A farm will be his one pride and joy.

CONWAY, JOHN

September 24

He drives his car most everywhere,
And, too, he's always combing his hair.

CREEKS, JACK

July 5

He's always talking, ready to jest,
And we all think he's one of the best.

DeMATTIS, EMMA

April 7

Carefree and jolly, she loves to sing,
Indifferent to what tomorrow will bring.

DEMETER, MARY

January 15

She's a lass with great ambitions,
Worthy of life's high positions.

EICHHOLTZ, HAROLD

April 26

Full of vim, tall and thin,
Put his car in a race—he'll win.

ELLUINGER, JACK

November 13

Jackie E. is far from meek;
He's what you call a typical sheik.

ELY, SAM

October 2

Always happy, always gay,
He gets his work, yet has his play.

EVANS, CLINTON

August 13

He teases the girls until they're looney;
He answers to the name of "Cooney."

EYLES, EDWIN

July 19

In football season, Ed was a thrill.
Now, which will it be—"Till" or the mill?

FIEDLER, THOMAS

November 10

Every night after school
You will find him tending pool.

FOGEL, EARL

January 13

The clam is very talkative compared to Earl in a mob;
To get a sentence out of him is really quite a job.

FOGEL, VIRGINIA

May 25

Laughing eyes, pretty face,
We like to have her 'round the place.

FRANCIS, ELMER

September 28

Not very serious and not very gay,
But a rare good fellow in his own way.

FRISHKORN, MARGARET

April 5

Peg is full of laughter, with ever present smiles,
Petite and sweet, cute and neat; look out, men,
for her wiles.

FULCOMER, ALVIN

August 17

He's liked by everyone and no one wonders why;
Besides being good-looking, Whitey's a regular guy.

FULTON, HELEN

February 13

She has a merry heart that laughs at care,
With a cheerful spirit as light as air.

GARRIS, WALTER

December 23

When you're around him and have something to say,
You'll have to save it for another day.

GETSAY, JOE

June 6

Football, basketball, track, and swimmin'—
All these things sure hook the wimmin.

HART, LEO

March 4

"L" as in love, "H" as in heart;
Tear them apart and you've got Leo Hart.

HARTER, FLOYD

May 17

Never has a thing to do.
He's satisfied to just get through.

HOOVER, GORDON

July 6

Easy come, easy go.
Shy and quiet—well, we don't know!

HOUSEHOLDER, JEAN

August 22

Not content only to learn,
A higher goal is her one concern.

HOUSEHOLDER, RAYMOND

January 20

One swell chap, this Householder guy,
Though quite a tease and rather shy.

JOHNSTON, MARIAN

February 7

Very clever in many lines,
In music she especially shines.

KEEFER, JEAN

January 10

She's always right, she's never wrong;
In bookkeeping class she does belong.

KENNEDY, LOIS

November 23

Some call her "Flirt," some call her "Farmer."
But to Louie Orr she's just a charmer.

KILE, JOHN

August 20

He has no time for women, 'tis plain,
A mere diploma is his aim.

KING, JACK

July 6

Jack King, for Heaven's sakes!
Don't bring to Commencement those awful snakes!

KLIMACK, EMMA

December 20

Studies the serious side of life,
But sees the sun in the midst of strife.

LAUCH, RUTH

December 2

She's from the country, she's pretty, she rates,
But we don't know much about her dates.

LIND, LEONARD

October 12

Decided that he couldn't take it;
He doesn't know that some just fake it.

LISTH, JEANNE

December 19

Blond and cute and likes to dance,
Step up, boys, and take a chance.

LOVETT, MARY FRANCES

August 5

Her gorgeous hair of auburn sheen
Would make the cleverest blond turn green.

LUTZ, JACK

June 27

His flashing smile and his pleasant way
Will make him our friend 'til judgment day.

MACK, BETTY

April 10

She's blonde, she's vivacious, she's gay,
And she loves in an ostentatious way.

MARSHALL, GLADYS

June 2

A little girl so shy and small,
You'd hardly know she's here at all.

McWITHEY, ERNEST

May 29

He's loved by one, he's loved by all,
And he likes them all both short and tall.

MESESAN, HELEN

January 6

Every night at half-past nine-r,
She'll be working at the Diner.

MILLER, PATSY

March 5

Patsy Ruth is really neat,
From her shining head to her twinkling feet.

NAYLOR, EVELYN

August 13

Hair, blond; eyes, blue;
Smile, sweet; friend, true.

ORR, HOWARD

April 1

Playing the piano is his joy;
And can he play it? Oh, boy!

PEFFER, JEAN

April 28

Serious is her countenance, but smiling are her eyes;
Her manner—quiet, self-possessed and infinitely wise.

PFEIFER, DOROTHY

July 8

Fair, slim, neat, and trim,
Ready to argue with lots of vim.

PFLUG, MERLE

October 26

He's not so quick to start a riot,
Just easy-going, nice and quiet.

POTTS, RAY

March 31

Ray Potts is another quiet one,
But, when you know him, he's full of fun.

RACZ, HELEN

July 21

She's small and dark and full of life;
She'll make someone a good little wife.

RADER, CLINTON

January 17

A man of the minute with lots to say;
He'll own a farm some sunny day.

RAPE, MARGARET

April 15

A girl with ambition and ideas galore,
She's wanting and willing to always do more.

RAPE, RAYMOND

May 19

Drowsy, sleepy, not a care,
He has that far-off dreamy stare.

RICE, CHARLOTTE

November 25

Quiet and bashful, but oh, so nice—
This is the story of Charlotte Rice.

ROBINSON, RUTH

May 31

The Number Two student of our Senior Class,
Is this charming, intelligent, talented lass.

RASSMAN, BETTY

November 23

A very cute and joyful lass,
One of the sweetest of our class.

SCHAFER, JEROME

July 23

Jerome is little, but hard as a nail;
He will succeed where others will fail.

SCOTT, INEZ

May 22

A prim young girl is Miss Scott,
Everyone likes her a lot.

SHARRER, JACK

June 6

Here is a boy who likes playing the fool;
He majors in sports, football and pool.

SLACK, ROBERT

September 26

Though he is small in stature, that doesn't worry
him;
He makes up for size in quality and vim.

SOLTESZ, ROSE

October 2

Quite a home-loving girl is Rose,
Work gives her happiness wherever she goes.

SOSNOSKI, VINCENT

July 6

"I hate Macbeth; I'll truthfully confess,
Shakespeare got me into quite a mess."

STAUFFER, LEE

April 16

Pud likes jazz, Pud likes swing;
Pud could do most any old thing.

STUCKEY, JAMES

May 16

He's one we can depend on when there's work to do.
Jim believes in helping out; he's one of the willing few.

STEELE, RUTH

October 25

Patient and quiet, and studious, too;
That describes Ruth through and through.

STOOPS, MELVIN

March 25

A pal to all, a foe to none;
He sees that nothing is undone.

STRAYER, ANNABELLE

August 27

Late in '41 she had her maiden name;
But now in '42 a Mrs. she does claim.

STRUTT, JANICE

September 4

When love and ills and lessons clash,
Let the ills and lessons smash!

VINCZE, PEARL

February 29

A friend always, a sport all through,
She does much most folks can't do.

WILLIAMSON, DONN

February 27

D. J.'s always into something, for he's so full of pep,
And for fun and nonsense he's always right in step.

WISER, ROBERT

August 26

Quiet, wise, and exceedingly nice,
Mere words for him would never suffice.

WOODBURN, PHYLLIS

February 26

Pleasant, kind, and full of sport,
Just the sort you like to court.

WORK, RUBY

March 21

Quietly she greets each new day,
Listening and learning along the way.

ZIEGLER, DICK

August 3

Talkative, happy and often loud—
Dick mixes well in any crowd.

Paul Beighlea

March 7, 1939

*"Should you go first and I remain
To finish with the scroll,
No length'ning shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem droll.
We've known so much of happiness,
We've had our cup of joy;
Ah, memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy."*

 JOE SZAKELYHIDI—An all around sport.

Juniors . . . Interesting Personalities

- I. Irma Lane—Dark haired cheerleader. Crazy about red. Likes boys from Evans City. Disarming grin.
- N. Now we'll talk about Marguerite Vollrath. A quiet little girl that gets lost in books. Zelenople's future librarian. Brainy.
- T. Tony Bagamery—Billiard shark. Broad minded, humorous and what an imagination! One of the coach's little chickens during football season.
- E. Eternally doing something devilish (which makes him so popular with the teachers) is Oran Graham. Mr. Barnes' Algebra star.
- R. "Ride the Clouds Lusk" is Bill's new handle. Haunts Spring Street. Chemical wizard.
- E. Evelyn Jenkins is the girl with talents; her outstanding one is art—how she shines!
- S. Sal Teets—Drawing card for "C&B." Loves dancing, Mars guys, and English class. Admirer of "Isabelle."
- T. Team! Team! Team! cries Miss McWithey. Bud just made another basket. Mathematical whiz.
- I. In everything she excels—it seems that Mary Ellen Logsdon just can't miss. She's swell at handling a ball in basketball and likes all other sports, too. Last year's class president.
- N. Never gloomy, always smiling is Jimmy Hodges. What would the Juniors do without him! ! ! A friendly word for everyone.
- G. Goodman style for Dot Fleckenstein. Makes you like her instantly. Likes swing music, dancing and acting.
- P. Peppy and popular—that's our Junior class vice president, Jay Lusk. Besides being future football captain and Zelig's John Barrymore, he's the life of the Junior class.
- E. Everyone has heard of Jack Jenkins or, at least he hopes they have. Likes Ellwood City girls. Plays left tackle on the football team.
- R. Rollin Engle—President of Language Club. His favorite dive is Campbell's, where you will usually find him. Lives on cherry cokes.
- S. Short skirts and slacks. That's right, it's Hilda Meyers. Hails from out Fom-bell way. Usually seen at the "Elwoodian" or "Clearview."
- O. "Open the door and climb in," says Zip Wise. Million dollar smile. Would rather lose his right arm than "Isabelle," his ancient rocket ship.
- N. Never dull or never dreary, never makes her listeners weary is Mary Heberling, class president. Usually dubbed "Deb." "Faithful Forever" should be her theme song.
- A. An athlete of supreme skill and one of which Z.H.S. is proud. Sleeps best in Chemistry class. Usually a man of his word. Future basketball captain. Joe Szakelhydi.
- L. Listen to her talk! Marjorie Parks. Likes a little RAY of sunshine from Harmony. Can she blush.
- I. In Latin, Jim Burchinal excels. Studious and smart, yet modest and shy. Never boastful.
- T. Talk! Talk! Talk! Never ceases—M. J. Druschel. Admirer of a certain blond trumpet player (member of same class). Believes in chemical warfare.
- I. It is a miracle how some people can always be just at the right place at the right moment. Betty Lee Hoover is one of these geniuses. Valued member of the cheerleading gang.
- E. Enough pep and friendliness to last anyone a lifetime. Just ask Jimmy Hodges about Doris Ebert. Had her prom date early.
- S. She goes with a boy from Mars. These Mars fellows really get around, don't they, Janie Whipple? Can always be found with Strutt.

SOPHOMORE

To a class that has what it takes

This Sophomore class is one that now is mighty, but wait until next year! This class is made up of real "Go Getters," who go after things in a big way. No other Sophomore class before has ever done so well in the line of honors as well as their activities.

On their "Superstition Dance," which was held at the school on March 15, they made more money than any other class.

Seven members of this class had parts in the Z.A.A. play, "Going Places." The play was a real success, and everyone was happy, especially the Sophomores.

Louise Bhame, a Sophomore, won first prize in an essay contest which was held in the school by the American Legion Auxiliary. Everyone in the school participated in the contest. Therefore, Louise had plenty of competition. Cash prizes were awarded to each of the winners.

Yes, they are going places all right. With their ambition, as well as the ability to carry on, they will be real followers of Zelig High. Keep up the fine work, kids, and Zelig is bound to always be on top.

This group consists of all the names from A to K,
 And what these guys and gals are like, we let you see today.

- A. Altemus is our funny man.
- B. Beighley entertains us all he can.
- B. Bhame (Lois) loves to sing and laugh.
- B. Bhame (Louise) is her other half.

- B. Blontz is quite a mystery.
- B. Brophy believes in secrecy.
- B. Bupp is a girl that likes the boys.
- B. Burckart studies and her work enjoys.
- B. Burkett will be a great sports star.
- C. Climenti likes things just as they are.
- C. Cleland has aims which are plenty high.
- C. Coulter is a really handsome guy.
- C. Cumberland has eyes only for "Will."
- D. Dunn likes to speed in his automobile.
- D. Druschel's been lonesome, since he's gone away.
- D. Dryden pickets Spring Street so gay.
- D. Dietrich has mathematical talents.
- E. English is a heart-breaker so gallant.
- F. Francis is satisfied to just get through.
- H. Harter likes them from Ellwood, too.
- G. Gaal is really full of fun.
- G. Gavril is the popular one.
- G. Gerwig in lessons takes all the cakes.
- G. Gross sure has what it takes.
- G. Guth has a swell alto voice.
- J. Jeffries is the football star of our choice.
- K. Kaufman likes to talk to her best friend.
- K. Klear hopes Home Ec. will never end.
- K. Kroll is our right and handy man.
He's in the groove since he's in the band.
- S. Sure they make a cute couple. Who? Why, Betty and Fritz, of course. Betty, being so light, and Fritz, being so dark, makes things all the more interesting.
- O. Oooooo, Stumpy, Joanne won't like that.
- P. Pretty nice, Jackie. Yep, Jean is "Pretty Darn Nice."
- H. Herman and Slack. Or should it be Slack and Slack? Well, not for a while, yet, but eventually, maybe.
- O. Of all the classes in school, we, the Sophomores, hold the record for appendectomies.
- M. May be only a rumor, but watch that, Dick and Alice Mae. Back seats are nice, but dangerous.
- O. Oh my, Rita, don't look so sad. What? D.J. flirting again? Tch, tch, that looks bad.
- R. Ray and Margie. Just a nice pair. Don't you think so, Ray?
- E. Ernie, now I'm not the type to gossip, but I heard that you think Ellwood girls are plenty "neat."
- R. Really Clark, you shouldn't give her such a merry chase.
- O. Of all people, "Becky and Dave." Isn't that sweet?
- M. My goodness, June. Why the sudden break-off with John?
- A. Aw, Aw, Catherine, we know these Evans City guys are "all right."
- N. Nice to have the girls like you, huh, Louis?
- C. Could it be true? Julie Vincze's theme song seems to be "Elmer's Tune."
- E. Even a Forensic contest has its points. How about it, Kenny?
- S. Shirley and Ernie have it bad. Two swell looking kids.

Freshmen . . . Room 103

A School Day

Well, another day at Zelig High has begun. There goes the last bell. Sure enough, here comes Bill White, late as usual. Miss Thompson has said her final "Quiet, please," and Mary Alice Wehr is leading devotions.

The bell has rung for our first period class. Andy Sutch and Jim Sweeney have started making paper wads for Civics class.

Nellie Spryngiel dropped her twenty-five pink and white excuses all over the downstairs hall. Donald Stewart is politely helping her pick them up.

Robert Scheidemantle has just scored again in Math. class.

My goodness, Louis Vincze, must you always be making some kind of bright remark?

We often wonder who the smarter ones are in second period Math. class. Could they be Thelma Zehner, Grace Workley, Sara Schiever and Alice Trimble?

Everyone is about settled for the day, now, and the noon bell has rung. Mary Wright gets to the cloak cupboard in time to find her extra cookies are gone. Naturally, Pearl and Alice Stover wouldn't be the guilty ones.

Class is dismissed and out go Ruth Strutt and Bob Steffler, hand in hand.

Lunch is over and we're back in school. The time flies until sixth period. This is when Jackie West gets caught writing notes.

Dick Wardle surely has a way with the teachers! Seventh period just wouldn't jive without Dick getting into some kind of trouble. (Ask Miss McKibben).

Finally last period Civics class rolls around, and everyone is happy.

I wonder what the attraction is outside, Jean Wilson and Gerry Smithtro. It couldn't be the track team, could it?

Dave Wise spends most of the time Out of the room. He suffers a lot with the hiccups.

Somehow Bob Vollrath never gets caught with his bean shooter. It's really neat, isn't it, Bob?

Eighth period over already? Sure enough!

Another hard day is over, and we're heading for home.

This ends another school day in the Freshman class.

EIGHTH GRADE

- A. Always something new. Never a dull moment with the eighth graders.
- C. Cracking bubble gum seems to be their specialty.
- L. Laughing and giggling makes up the girl's section.
- A. Asking questions takes up most of their time.
- S. Sure of themselves and plenty witty.
- S. Stuff, and I do mean stuff, are some of the swell "lookers" now, but wait a couple of years. WOW!
- O. Operating hand-made airplanes is a lot of fun. Huh, kids?
- F. Flirting with the girls of the upper classes is the pastime of many of these eighth grade "Romeos."
- L. Love and romance. Starting young.
- A. Attitude of class—plenty of school spirit.
- U. Up on all the newest gags. They never miss a thing.
- G. Give the teachers a headache, but the teachers would be lost without them.
- H. Happy always. Never gloomy.
- S. Speeding on toward a grand future Senior Class.

SEVENTH GRADE

*In 1941 there came from down below
Twenty-six new boys and girls
Whom we have learned to know,
A small and insignificant group,
But ambition they have plus.
The future shows a mighty troupe.
A few, we now discuss.
Now Mildred Z., a fine little girl
Says movie stars just thrill.
Black cats and snakes, she also claims,
Give her an awful chill.
Bobby Clouse is a boy
Who thinks basketball is tops.
But when it comes to writing?
Well, before he starts, he stops.
Eddie Kaufman is a lad
With eyes for sports alone.
His ambition is that some day
The hotel will be his own.
Jimmy Hogan says that "blondes"
Sure have what it takes.
He also thinks that teacher's pets
Are given all the breaks.
Bobby Hubbard likes those girls
That wear blue ribbons and have long curls.
He says that teachers set him wild
Because they treat him like a child.
Now Betty Say thinks hiking's grand,
All but the snakes which are on hand.
To be a stewardess on a great airliner
Is her main ambition, and it couldn't be finer.
Mary Jean Wilson likes history and art,
And red hair, she also thinks is "smart."
"I'd design like Adrian" is her ambition.
We hope you gain as grand a position.
These are only samples,
These few that just were given.
This class will lead our "Zelie High," in 1947.*

*I'm feeling lonesome,
I'm feeling blue,
Dreaming old pals
Of school days and you.
Best hearted fellows
A chap ever knew,
Where are they now,
Those pals and you?*

*Sometimes in fancy
I find my way
Back to the school
Where we used to play.
Where are those fellows,
Light-hearted and gay,
Where are they now,
Those pals, you and they?*

On the morning of December 22, 1941, the five pledges from the Junior class of last year took part in a ceremony in which the new members were initiated. These members gave talks on the requirements of the National Honor Society. George Yockey acted as chairman. Ruth Robinson spoke on "Scholarship"; Virginia Fogel, on "Leadership"; Christine Bauder, on "Character"; and Jack Creeks, on "Service."

The society got under way on January 6 with its thirteen members, which is fifteen per cent of the class, with a party at the home of one of its members.

As its bit toward National Defense, the National Honor Society collected books for the Army and Navy boys in the Victory Book Campaign.

The club meetings were held at the homes of the members with a social evening following the business meeting.

Under two new commercial advisors, Miss Thompson and Miss Gerber, the Commercial Club got an early start with its first meeting of September 29, 1941. Besides having many parties at which the members danced, played cards and had refreshments, the club took over the school paper and re-organized it as the Z-Mentor, with the editor Marion Johnston.

For the benefit of the large number of students in this club, various demonstrations have been obtained from different business schools in the field of business.

The club was founded on December 8, 1941, for the purpose of being of assistance in all girls' gym work. It is made up now of honorary members chosen by last year's gym classes. For membership the student's qualification was to be a "leader" in gym classes.

Meetings were to be held on second and fourth Mondays of the month, but First Aid classes and various other school activities interfered with their meeting. Therefore the meetings were held irregularly.

At the Z. A. A. Play, "Going Places," some of the members served as usherettes.

The members of the club wear maroon and white emblems as symbols of their membership. Their tasks include taking care of restrictive gym students.

Members of this club have participated in either basketball, football, or track, and have gained sufficient points to be eligible for a letter.

One of the features of this club is that the Senior boys in good standing are awarded sweaters. To acquire money for these awards, the boys this year sold pencils with the basketball schedule on them.

Something new has been added in the basketball line—a ghost basketball game! In this game, sponsored by the Rotarians, the Z. H. S. all-stars and a team from the Rotary club played basketball in the dark.

After a banquet given in honor of the football and basketball squads, the boys sponsored a dance in the high school auditorium.

This organization, under the capable guidance of its advisor and leadership of its president, has made itself known as one of the most active clubs in the school.

They started their season's activities with an Annual Membership Dinner. On November 6 they held a nutrition meeting for the community in the High School Auditorium. For the benefit of its members the club gave a Christmas Party.

Early in the spring the club entertained Home Economics Students from Evans City and Slippery Rock. Mary Heberling wrote and directed a skit, "Topsy-Turvy Home-Eccer's."

On March 7, Anna Grace Schofield, Betty Herman, Ruby Work, and Beverly West attended a Home Economics Rally at Indiana, Pennsylvania.

At the Pennsylvania Home Economics Association Convention at Hershey, Pennsylvania, on May 2, Anna Grace Schofield and Ruby Work represented Zelienople High School.

Their last social event of the year was a May picnic.

As an aid to National Defense, the club sewed for the Red Cross, and made sand bags.

They also sponsored many speakers and field trips.

In accordance with the principles of the club, the Hi-Y conducted the religious programs at Christmas and Eastertime. Their Christmas program was a very impressive candlelight service with Reverend Logsdon giving the Christmas story. Our own mixed chorus sang the Christmas carols. Reverend Veith delivered the Easter message, and the choir from the Harmony Reformed Church sang the Easter songs.

We pay tribute to these boys, and to their advisor, who have taken part in many fairs and exhibits. They have come back from these events, proudly displaying their medals and ribbons.

Among the awards given in the year 1942 are:

- 7 firsts in poultry work and exhibits
- 1 best showing in the show
- 6 second places in county fairs
- 2 third awards
- 2 fourths
- 3 ribbons in live stock at Mercer.

John Wise, Earl Fogel, and Raymond Potts went to Pennsylvania State College on May 15. They also attended the Annual Farm Show in Harrisburg on January 10, 11 and 12.

Forensic Events

Talking is our most common form of communication. Sooner or later almost everyone has to make some kind of speech, so we should learn to speak well and effectively. For this purpose, the forensic contests have been planned, whereby students have an opportunity to get this training and experience and to hear others who have put forth effort along these lines.

Our own school was represented this year at the Forensic Contests by the following students:

George Logsdon, Senior, original oration.
Jane Braughler, Senior, Shakespearean reading.
Rebekah Stewart, Sophomore, extemporaneous speaking.
Clarke Lampard, Sophomore, declamation.
Rosella Powell, Sophomore, poetry reading.

The results were:

George Logsdon, first place.
Jane Braughler, first place.
Clarke Lampard, second place.
Rebekah Stewart, second place.

George Logsdon and Jane Braughler also placed in the district contests at Edinboro.

I wish to thank and congratulate all these students who gave their time and energy to represent our school this year. Then in particular do I want to commend them for their fine attitude and good sportsmanship. Our school can well be proud of them.

There was a definite growth of interest in these events this year, and also a much improved forensic program in our school. May the years show a marked increase in the number who are interested in better speech.

Junior Girls' Volleyball

In the girls' intramural basketball tournament played among the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior teams, the Junior girls were victorious. The games were played in November with Miss Morrison officiating.

Cheerleaders

By sponsoring a movie at the Strand theater, the cheerleaders obtained enough money to buy themselves new purple and gold shirts, which were in evidence at every game. Since all the whoopticans are underclassmen, may they carry on their fine work next year, with Miss Morrison remaining their guide.

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

The senior play was presented to a record-breaking crowd on November 17, 1941. The high school auditorium was filled with more people than it had ever before held for a play.

Eccentric is the word which best describes the Sycamore family. In this household everyone does just exactly as he pleases. Life goes on amid play writing, ballet dancing, xylophone practicing, the operating of a printing press, caring for a snake collection, and preparing an occasional meal. When the parents of Alice's employer come to view their prospective daughter-in-law, they are shocked by the living conditions of the Sycamores. Through the course of events, Mr. Kirby discovers that the Sycamore family's philosophy has its good points after all.

The faculty advisors for this play were Miss Stout and Miss McKibben. The large production staff made up of make-up committee, ticket committee, publicity committee, program committee, property committee, ushers, the stage crew, and the bookholder were also contributing factors to the play's success.

This play, the first mystery given in this high school for several years, is that of an eccentric old man who died, leaving a will stipulating that his four heirs must remain for three nights in the house occupied by him for many years and which had the reputation of being haunted.

If any of the heirs refuse to remain for the three nights, their share is to go to those who stay. If all of them are frightened away, then his property is to be divided between his old secretary and a colored servant who is deaf and dumb. If either one of these two dies, the other inherits all the property.

There are many "spookish" happenings that keep the nerves of the audience taut and vibrant.

Directors: Mr. Howard Barnes and Miss Jane Morrison.

The play is centered on college life. To "Chuck" Malloy, Ancient History was a problem; in fact, such a problem that it kept him from entering college to play football. Through the efforts of the daughter of the President of Dartford College and many of her friends, "Chuck" finally gained admission to the college and the football squad.

Band

The band was organized as a club this year for the first time. The results were:

The first big event! The Marine Band got a glimpse of the famous little Zelenople High School Band at Aliquippa on September 22.

A harvest moon, a hay wagon, and a band of kids turned the country upside down. Incidentally, it was a hay ride, a perfect ending for September.

What would a dedication be without our band? Z. H. S. band was one of the organizations that helped WISR enter the air waves on September 26.

The boys on the football team and the basketball squad were spurred on at the home games by music.

Brrrrr!!! Was it cold! At the annual Armistice Day parade, the Zelig High musicians shivered and shook all over Butler.

In attempts to raise money, the Firemen sponsored a turkey raffle, with us as beneficiaries, and the band itself held a skating party. Many thanks to the townspeople who sponsored the band's trip to the state contest at Bloomsburg.

On March 20, music lovers were entertained by the finest music concert ever held in our school. The band brought home laurels from the district contest. Champs again! What a time at the state contest. Will Bloomsburg ever be the same?

The band played for Baccalaureate. Then came the day of days—Commencement. The band said 'goodbye' to nineteen musicians. To the Zelenople High School Band of next year—

Keep 'em Tooting!

Orchestra

Yes, Zelig High has an orchestra too. Although the organization makes only several showings a year, it is a vital part of school life.

The Senior Class Play, the Junior Class Play and the Athletic Association Play were the only too few occasions at which this group made appearances.

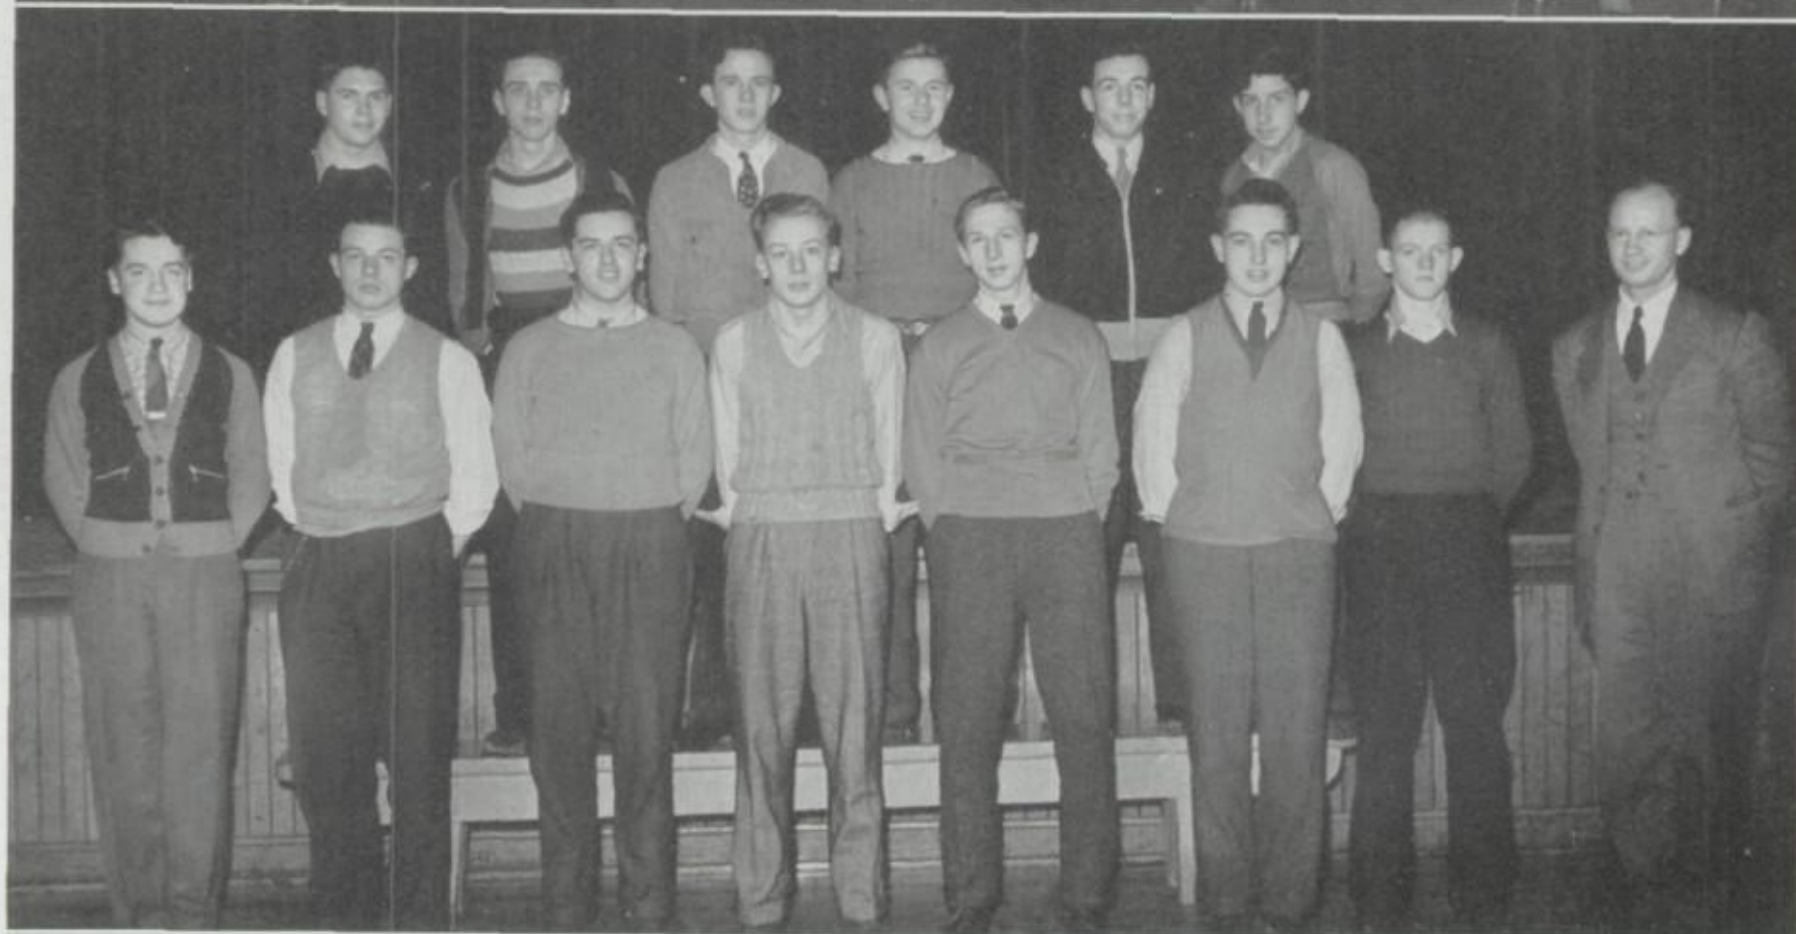

MEMBERS OF ORCHESTRA

Top Row: Alice Stover, Piano; Margaret Ann Cumberland, Cornet; William Lusk, Cornet; Joanne Zehner, Baritone; Jack Sharrer, French Horn; James Lintz, French Horn; Jack Creeks, Trombone; George Yockey, Clarinet; Mr. Holroyd, Conductor; Patsy Miller, Tympani.

Bottom Row: Robert Robinson, Violin; Betty Harter, Violin; John Conway, Violin, Ruth Buehler, Saxophone; Pearl Say, Saxophone; Samuel Ely, Oboe; Betty Mack, Flute; Ruth Robinson, Clarinet.

Choruses

Vocal Tidbits

This year Zelenople High School produced a music department of which everyone can be proud. Thanks, H. J.

In the county, in the district, and in the state contests, our school had its share of the honors.

The girls' chorus and boys' chorus combined to form an excellent mixed chorus of seventy-five voices. To hear this chorus perform was a thrill.

The mixed octet, consisting of—Betty Mack, Patsy Miller, Jean Beahm, Lois Kennedy, Jack King, George Logsdon, John Conway, and James Lintz, was one of the vocal ensembles entered at the county music contest. The school was immensely pleased with this group.

The pride and joy, however, was the boys' octet, consisting of Jack King, John Conway, Samuel Ely, Jack Creeks, George Logsdon, Robert Robinson, Thomas Fiedler, and James Lintz.

From both townspeople and the music judges, it received favorable criticisms. At the district contest the coveted rating of first place was achieved by this group.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS

JOE SZAKELYHIDI—Right End—A player with no experience, but played a great game against Mars.

JOHN KILE—Right Tackle—Small and fast: played outstanding ball all year. He graduates.

GERALD WHITE—Right Guard—Was interested in the game. Good fighting spirit, lots of courage. He leaves.

JACK LUSK—Center—Played a good game at center. Backed up the line in fine fashion. Next year's captain.

JOHN BOROS—Left Guard—Hard, charging guard who worked well in every game. Let's go next year, John.

JACK JENKINS—Left Tackle—A husky tackle with lots of fight and courage. Should play good ball next year.

ELMER FRANCIS—Left End—An experienced player. Exhibited outstanding skill all year, especially at Freedom where he won the game for Zelic with a fine tackle behind the enemy's goal. We'll miss you, Hoodoo.

GEORGE YOCKEY—Quarterback—Signal caller; never gave up until the end. A fine pass snatcher. So long, George.

MERLE YOUNG—Halfback—Small but shifty; played good ball against Mars. Will shine next year.

JACK LUTZ—Halfback—Although hurt in a couple of games, he carried most of the burden of running. Played outstanding game against Beaver. You should have stayed to graduate.

JOE GETSAY—Fullback—Although out part of the year with a bad finger, he got in the Beaver game and carried on in fine fashion. Let's play good ball at Geneva.

JOHN BURKETT—Halfback—Never said much, but usually acted on the football field. Really built to play football. So long, Johnny.

DONN WILLIAMSON—End—Was fast and caught his share of passes. Played brilliant ball against Hopewell. Clem will miss you.

RUSS DRUESCHEL—Tackle—Could have made a good ball player if he had tried. Played outstanding game against Evans City.

ERNIE COULTER—Tackle—A good guard to substitute. Played good ball when the chips were down. Let's fight hard next year.

BILL JEFFRIES—Center—Jeff has had much experience and shows signs of improvement next year.

JACK SHARRER—Guard—Played fine ball but lacked experience. An injury received in the Beaver game kept him out of one game. Graduates.

TONY BAGAMERY—End—He didn't have a chance to show much this year, as he wasn't experienced. He will be going places next year. Watch this fourth son of the Bagamery family.

BOB WISER—Guard—A boy who showed lots of fight, but lacked the experience.

WILLIE FRANCIS—End—Showed improvement from last year. Played hard ball and made fine tackles. Will fight for his position this coming year.

ANDY GETSAY—Quarterback—Could make a fine quarter if he would stick to his job. Let's get back in the groove and play football for a change, Andy.

RED GOEHRING—Fullback—Can take a lot of bangs, should run wild next year.

MAX KUSTUGIC—Halfback—Shows signs of improvement. Should prove to be a good blocker.

These boys deserve much credit for their cooperation with each other and with the coaches. We wish them the best of luck in the coming year.

ARNOLD 12—ZELIENOPLE 0

After a trip of about forty miles, the boys were not in top condition for the season's opener. Although everyone played good ball, the heavier Arnold eleven went on to two touchdowns while holding Zelig scoreless. With only five lettermen back, the team still looks very promising for the rest of the year.

HOPEWELL 12—ZELIENOPLE 20

After a slow start, Zelig showed a good offensive attack. Francis blocked a punt, and, four plays later, Lutz went over to tie the score 6-6. In the third quarter, Lutz again got the ball and ran 65 yards for a touchdown. In the final period a sustained drive and a pass from Lutz to Yockey brought the final score to 12-20.

SHENANGO 7—ZELIENOPLE 0

Zelig seemed to lack the spirit and fight shown in the previous games. After being pushed around, they finally settled down and the game ended in a 7-0 defeat.

FREEDOM 0—ZELIENOPLE 2

On a wet, muddy field at Freedom, no one seemed to be able to gain an advantage. The game saw-sawed back and forth until Lutz executed a punt, which went out of bounds on the Freedom one-foot line. Freedom tried to run from a punt formation, but Hoodoo "caught the nigger behind the line" for a touchdown.

BEAVER 6—ZELIENOPLE 6

First tie game of the season. In the second quarter Lutz raced 70 yards on an off-tackle play for our only touchdown.

UNION TOWNSHIP 6—ZELIENOPLE 6

Second tie game of the season. Starting very slowly, the Zelig eleven showed no football until the second half. In the second half Zelig showed her greatest offensive strength, with Lutz and Getsay leading the attack. Lutz crashed over from the 7-yard line to score. The extra point, drop-kicked by Getsay, was signaled good, but after a discussion, was ruled no good by the official.

MARS 0—ZELIENOPLE 21

In her first game for the Class B championship of Butler County, Zelig took an early lead with Young and Slack each scoring touchdowns. After being held scoreless through the second and third periods, Zelig scored her third touchdown in the final period.

AVALON 20—ZELIENOPLE 0

On a damp, rainy afternoon, with the field very slick, Zelig was handed her worst defeat. Although outweighed and outclassed by Avalon, she stood well, but lost by a bad score.

EVANS CITY 7—ZELIENOPLE 7

In the final game for the Class B championship, Zelig was on the short end of a 7 to 0 score at the half. Given inspiration from the words of the coaches in the dressing rooms, they came back fighting. In the second half they again showed the strong offensive and defensive attacks of previous games. On a 45 yard drive, the ball was carried to the three yard line and then plunged over by Getsay. The same play added the extra point. In the final moments of the game Zelig started another drive, but was kept from scoring by the final gun.

The coaches lost no time in challenging Evans City to a return game, but they refused, glad to rate even a tie. Therefore, the Butler County Class B Championship remains unsettled for another year.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

BOB SLACK—Forward—A fast boy with no experience. Was a dead shot under the basket. Played fine ball against Hopewell.

GEORGE YOCKEY—Forward—A player who never got excited. Shot well from the side of the floor. Teamed up with Slack.

JOE SZAKELYHIDI—Center—High scorer of the year. Got most of the tipoffs. Captain of next year's team.

CARL MEEDER—Guard—A captain who took basketball very seriously. A dead shot in the clinch. A great defensive man.

JOE GETSAY—Guard—Took over the guard position about the fourth game. A good boy at following his shots up. Was a great fighter.

DONN WILLIAMSON—Guard—A fine boy to put in in a pinch. Can handle a ball and was dead on long shots.

ANDY GETSAY—Guard—Although stage frightened, he played a good game. Will be playing a good brand of ball next year.

ERNIE McWITHEY—Center—Hampered a little by an operation; Ernie puts his whole heart into the game.

MERLE YOUNG—Forward—A fast boy who should prove to be a good forward next year. He sure loves to fight for that ball.

ALVIN FULCOMER—Forward—Lack of experience kept him on the bench most of the year. He enjoyed being on the team and trying.

BILL LUSK—Guard—He is a good guard if he would forget about the idea of always dribbling. Let's do the right thing next year.

ERNIE COULTER—Center—Certainly could get the rebounds. A fine boy who surely can play that center position.

MEET SCORES

Freedom 76—Zelie 29	April 25th
Evans City 63—Zelie 46	May 6th
Etna 53—Zelie 48	May 13th
Mars 51—Zelie 47	May 20th

Although losing its meets, the Zelie squad failed to score in only 4 of 48 events. Zelie outpointed every team except Freedom on the track, but fell victim in the weight and jumping events. The Mars and Etna meets were so close that even one second place would have won the meet, and they were not decided until the last event. In the Evans City meet, the score was 45 to 44 with two events to go, and our opponents won by sweeping the broad jump and winning the mile relay. The Freedom meet was the first of the season and the first competition for all but two on the Zelienople squad. After that experience they settled down and provided some real competition throughout the campaign.

Sitting: M. Stoops, J. Keefer, E. DeMattis, C. Bauder, V. Fogel, R. Wiser, R. Robinson, S. Ely.

Standing: L. Hart, J. Creeks, W. Garriss, J. Lintz, G. Logsdon, M. Frishkorn, A. Fulcomer, Mrs. Wise.

Thanks from the Staff

We wish to take this opportunity to thank gratefully those persons, whether faculty members, Seniors, or Underclassmen, who have helped us to publish this annual. We wish to give distinct recognition to our advisor, Mrs. Wise, and to our proof readers, Miss Stout and Miss Albin.

We have endeavored to collect in this book a few events, a few victories and achievements, a few defeats, and many whole-hearted joys.

If this book brings to you a few fond recollections and a lasting impression of our school life, we have accomplished our purpose.
